

ZEITQUARTIER EXPOSÉ

Above the roofs of the city

This charming apartment is suitable for one person and convinces with its central location and practical layout. In the living-bedroom you will find two single beds (90 x 200 cm), which you can use as a day bed and seating during the day. A stylish desk meets the requirements of home-office activities. The separate kitchen is equipped with a small kitchenette and a large refrigerator and has a full set of basic equipment. From the hallway you enter the neat shower bathroom. Two large built-in wardrobes in the hallway offer plenty of space and storage options. In the garden you have the possibility to store a bike in the bike port or to use the barbecue including seating. Here you live very central and have a great view. An appealing apartment that is also well suited for a long-term stay.

Location and area

The apartment in a central location in the southeast quarter is perfect for a person who appreciates short distances to the city center or the other central districts in Essen. All stores for daily needs are within walking distance, as well as public transport. For the car there is free parking in the street.
