

ZEITQUARTIER EXPOSÉ

Large premium apartment in charming building – near city center

This chic and individual charming building apartment conveys coziness and spaciousness with an open room concept and exposed beams. In the living room there is a cozy sitting area with sofa and TV. There is also a small desk for home office needs. Adjacent, the dining area with a large dining table offers space for four people and additional storage space. The large and open kitchen impresses with a breakfast bar and a modern kitchenette with all amenities in a contemporary look. Comfortable with an eye-level dishwasher and oven, it offers plenty of space to cook together. From the kitchen, you can access the quiet balcony that faces the courtyard. The bedroom is equipped with a comfortable double bed, closets and drawers. Another highlight is the new, very appealing bathroom, which gets a lot of daylight through a floor-to-ceiling window and is equipped with a bathtub, shower and towel heating. A great premium apartment with lots of space and comfort in the best city location – perfect also for a longer stay.

Location and area

The apartment is located in the eastern quarter and convinces with its proximity to the city. Despite the central location, it is very quiet. The city center can be reached easily on foot. Shopping and entertainment facilities as well as restaurants and bars can be reached within a few minutes walk. Shopping for daily needs can also be done on foot. In the street you can park publicly and by car you can quickly reach all destinations inside and outside Essen.
