Best city location with balcony

This well-maintained apartment convinces with its location close to the city centre and its good furnishings. It offers space for up to four people. The living room has a cosy and bright sofa corner. Visually separated by a shelf, there is a sofa bed – 1.40m x 2m – which offers space for up to 2 people if required. The room is complemented by a workplace. From the living room you also enter the balcony, where you can enjoy cosy summer evenings. The separate bedroom has been completely refurbished and equipped with new box-spring beds, which can also be arranged as a double bed if required. The spacious kitchen has a comfortable kitchenette and is equipped with all technical appliances, including a dishwasher and basic equipment for four people. The dining area is also located here. Further plus points are the large, floor-level shower in the bathroom, the spacious hallway, where a large cupboard offers sufficient additional storage space, which belongs to the apartment. All in all, this is a flat with a high quality of stay, even for a longer period of time.

Location and area

The well-designed city apartment with balcony is convincing due to its location: on the edge of the city centre, you live here close to the centre and yet quietly. The city centre with pedestrian zone and all shopping facilities as well as restaurants and bars are within walking distance. Very good public transport connections – it only takes 5-10 minutes to get to the Viehofer Platz and Rheinischer Platz stops. Both are only 2 stops away from the main railway station. The University of Essen and the RWE campus are directly opposite. By car, you can reach all destinations within Essen in no time at all, and the neighbouring motorways are only a few minutes' drive away.
