

ZEITQUARTIER EXPOSÉ

Bright and modern home with style – Comfortable temporary living

The newly renovated apartment impresses with its bright, friendly atmosphere and modern, tasteful furnishings. The open-plan living and dining area is furnished with a comfortable sofa, which can also be used as a sofa bed if required. The adjoining dining area with a simple white table and four chairs offers enough space for shared meals or for working. Large windows provide plenty of natural light and a pleasant feeling of space. The kitchen is functional and stylish, with bright fronts, a wooden worktop and elegant gold-look fittings. It is fully equipped and offers everything you need for everyday life. Lovely decorations and natural materials create a cozy living atmosphere. The modern bathroom is equipped with a practical shower. Overall, the apartment combines comfort and style in an ideal way – perfect for singles, couples or business travelers looking for a stylish temporary home.

Location and area

The apartment is located in Holsterhausen, a lively district in the west of Essen with an excellent infrastructure and many green spaces nearby. The A40 highway can be reached quickly and conveniently connects Essen with Duisburg and Bochum, and the A52 highway towards Düsseldorf is also within a short driving distance. Public transport such as streetcars and buses provide quick connections to the city center and the main train station. Shopping facilities, schools, doctors and leisure facilities such as the nearby Grugapark are within easy reach. The residential area is quiet and characterized by a mixture of apartment buildings and single-family homes, which makes the location particularly attractive for families and professionals who want to combine urban living with residential comfort.
