Nice feel with plenty of space to live and work

You can just feel comfortable in this beautiful and spacious apartment. The apartment has now been completely renovated and refurbished. Much emphasis was placed on maintaining the flair of the historical building: parquet flooring laid throughout, refurbished doors and open passageways are complemented by modern technology and the best, contemporary furnishings. The apartment has a spacious bedroom with a comfortable box spring bed. The additional sofa can be converted into a sofa bed in just a few simple steps. The open living area not only offers a dining area for four people, but also an additional sleeping area with the convertible sofa. The open, modern kitchen impresses with its comfort (including dishwasher), complete kitchenware and special flair due to the large windows that allow a view of the greenery and provide plenty of light. A separate toilet, a bathroom with bathtub and shower as well as the washer / dryer in the apartment complete the picture. It's the perfect apartment for two or more people who don't want to miss out on any comfort during a longer stay - a cleaning service can also be booked if interested.

Location and area

This beautiful historical building is located in the central district of Frohnhausen. Short distances by car to the city centre, to the exhibition centre or to all other central destinations in Essen are within a few minutes' drive. The highways of the Ruhr area are also in the immediate vicinity and public transport with fast connections can be reached on foot in just a few minutes. All shops for your daily needs are just a few minutes' walk away, as is the twice-weekly market. Public parking is available free of charge.
