

ZEITQUARTIER EXPOSÉ

Above the roofs of the city

This apartment for one person is in a central location and offers a charming layout. In the living room there is enough space for a couch and a dining table for 2 people – perfect for working. The comfortable single bed (1.20 x 2.00 metres) “disappears” visually in a niche. The separate kitchen is equipped with a small kitchenette and has all the necessary kitchenware. You can enjoy a great view in a quiet but central area above the roofs of the city. An internet connection is available for guests.

Location and area

The apartment in a central location in the southeast quarter is perfect for someone who appreciates short distances to the city centre or the other central parts of the city in Essen. All shops for your daily needs are within walking distance, as is public transport. There is free parking in the street.
