The separate bedroom is spacious and has three single beds that can be put together if necessary. The bathroom was recently renovated and impresses with its clean and chic appearance. The apartment scores points overall with its excellent and attractive furnishings – which is also evident in the living room and in the fully equipped kitchen with dining table. Highlight: When the weather is nice, you can relax on the small south-facing balcony. The apartment is perfect for allergy sufferers and offers peace and comfort with easy transport connections.
