In the middle of the city

In a centrally located apartment building, this home on the 2nd floor has two bedrooms, each with separate single beds (if necessary they can also be pushed together). The modern eat-in kitchen is equipped with a small kitchenette, a dining area for 4 people and a TV. The bathroom is modern and brightly tiled and has a bathtub with shower attachment. For people who appreciate a fresh look and short distances, it's the perfect address. The host offers 3 more apartments in the building as well.

Location and area

The apartment is very conveniently located in a central downtown location. Both Essen main train station and the access to the A 40 motorway are only 600 metres away. There is an underground station in the immediate vicinity (1 minute walk). In addition, the popular Rüttenscheider Str. with its shopping and nightlife options is within walking distance "around the corner". This is the perfect option for someone who wants to live centrally and is on the move with their own car or public transport.
