Chices apartment in Gelsenkirchen old town with large, bright kitchen

This very chic apartment has been freshly renovated and very straight furnished. Here is enough space for 1 to 2 people who like to live unobtrusively and like to walk your everyday life. The new sofa in the living room fits perfectly with the understated style of furnishings, on which you can relax very comfortably. The modest bedroom focuses on the most important; quiet and undisturbed sleep in the large double bed (180 x 200 cm). If desired, the beds can also be placed separately. The closet provides ample storage space. The bright and large kitchen is equipped with a new kitchenette with integrated dishwasher and a dining table for 4 people. The bright, black and white tiled daylight bathroom has a large shower.

Location and area

The apartment in the Altstadt district of Gelsenkirchen is very centrally located. In the lively district you can easily reach supermarkets, pharmacies and doctors on foot. Also on foot you can reach the Gelsenkirchen main train station and the city center in about 20 minutes (about 2 km). From the center you can reach all destinations within Gelsenkirchen, as well as Essen or the other neighboring cities of Mülheim, Bochum, Duisburg and Düsseldorf as well as Dortmund by public transport. The main artery of the Ruhr area A 40 can be reached within 10 minutes. By car, you can reach the center of Essen in about 25 minutes by car. Public parking is possible in the surrounding area.
