central apartment with large, bright kitchen in Essen-Rüttenscheid

This fresh apartment is centrally located in Essen-Rüttenscheid and offers on a good 50 sqm everything you need for a comfortable stay. The colorful living room with sofa, TV and desk offers space to relax and work. If necessary, the sofa converts into a comfortable bed in a few simple steps, providing space for up to two people. The bright bedroom has two single beds (90×200 cm), which can be put together to a double bed if desired. The very large sliding door wardrobe has ample storage space. The apartment is covered with warm laminate flooring. The spacious kitchen, decorated in white, has a fully equipped kitchenette and a dining table for 4 people. The bright daylight bathroom is equipped with a large bathtub. On the balcony you can relax and enjoy the view of the green garden. All in all, this is an apartment that is also suitable for a long-stay.

Location and area

From the apartment you can reach Messe Essen, the Grugahalle and the Alfred Krupp Hospital within walking distance. Rüttenscheid is a lively and popular district, with supermarkets, pharmacies, boutiques and doctors, as well as a wide variety of services. With the public transport stops you can reach the center of Essen and the main station as well as the south of Essen in a few minutes. From the main station you can reach the destinations within Essen or the neighboring cities of Mülheim, Bochum, Duisburg, Düsseldorf as well as Dortmund. Also by car, all central destinations within and outside Essen are nearby in a very short time through the A52. Public parking is possible in the surrounding area.
